ENOUGH

WEEK 7

AIN'T NO
- MOUNTAIN - HIGH ENOUGH

Enough is our Concordia University Texas theme for the 2023-2024 academic year.

CONNECT

with self and others:

1. What are you most looking forward to about Fall Break?
2. What are your plans?

ENGAGE

the Word:

The mountain HE climbed. There's so many mountains people have climbed. Abraham and Issac climbed a mountain, for Abraham to sacrifice Issac. Jesus also climbed a mountain and died so that Issac didn't have to. Jesus climbed the mountain we couldn't climb.

If you have ever seen a picture of Mount Everest you see the oxygen tanks people have to carry up there in order to breathe. It's obvious that our bodies are not made to survive above a certain elevation. Sometimes we try anyways, but many people that climb Everest become unable bc their body can't handle the elevation, or they run out of oxygen. People die up at Everest. Just like people can't climb at high elevation without oxygen we can't be saved without Jesus death. Jesus climbed the mountain where he died to die a death in your place and in mine. So that we would be saved and have his inheritance in heaven.

HIGH ENOUGH

DIG DEEPER:

READ
Genesis 22:1-14

Answer these questions

1. How would you have felt as Abraham? How would you have felt as Issac?
2. Has God after asked you to sacrifice or give up something? What was it and what did you do?
3. What is symbolic of Jesus in this passage?

³³ And when they came to the place that is called The Skull, there they crucified him, and the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. ³⁴ And Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." And they cast lots to divide his garments. ³⁵ And the people stood by, watching, but the rulers scoffed at him, saying, "He saved others; let him save himself, if he is the Christ of God, his Chosen One!" ³⁶ The soldiers also mocked him, coming up and offering him sour wine.

- Luke 23:33-36

SHARE:

apply to your life.

Take a few minutes to picture the betrayal, trial, beating, crucifixion, and burial of Jesus Christ. Picture everything about that Holy Week experience. What might your response be to Jesus right now for that great mountain He climbed for you?

PRAYER:

Jesus thank you for climbing the mountain to die the death that we couldn't. Remind us of your sacrifice and that we dont have to sit in shame, but rather look back at our life with Your blood covering everything. Amen.
