

The Accreditation Council for Business Schools and Programs (ACBSP) is a specialized accreditation association that reviews the quality and integrity of business degree programs. ACBSP accredits accounting, business, and business-related programs at the associate, baccalaureate, masters, and doctorate degree levels worldwide.

- ACBSP offers an accreditation process uniquely focused on teaching excellence and student outcomes. Because the council believes ACBSP success is driven by the success of its members, ACBSP officers and members align those programs and the accreditation process to meet the individual needs of each member.
- ACBSP promotes continuous improvement and recognizes excellence in the accreditation of business education programs around the world.
- ACBSP acknowledges the importance of scholarly research and inquiry and believes that such activities facilitate improved teaching. ACBSP encourages faculty involvement within the contemporary business world to enhance the quality of classroom instruction and to contribute to student learning.

ACBSP Accredited BBA Program Performance

The Peregrine Outbound Examination is a popular measure of how well a program is preparing students for success through gaining a mastery of core business concepts.

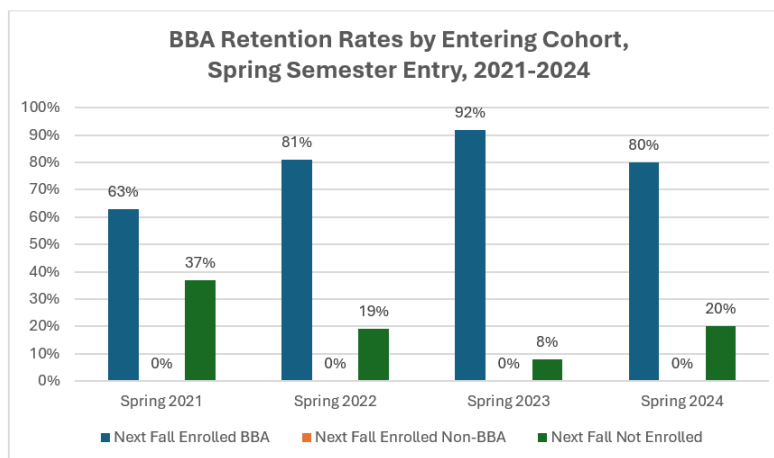

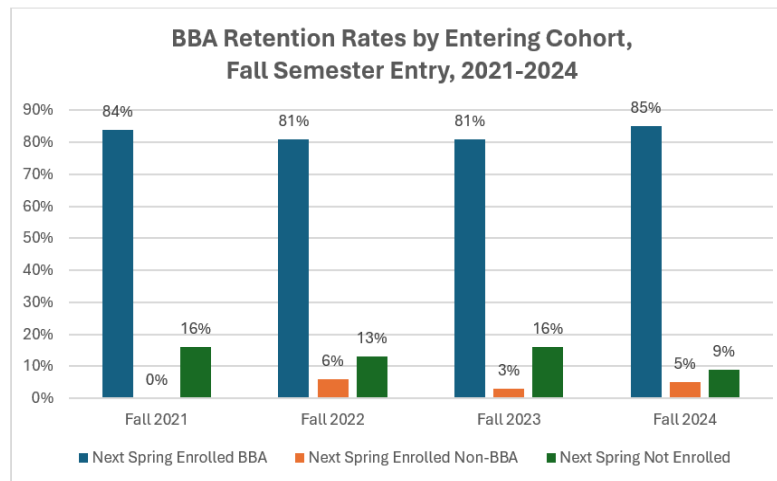

At Concordia University Texas, our goal is to deliver a quality BBA degree enabling our students to demonstrate an above average mastery of business concepts.

For example, results from the Fall 2024 semester show that our students achieved a 54% gain in mastery of Management Information Systems (MIS) concepts from taking our MIS core course, exceeding the 39% gain in MIS concept mastery for students completing an undergraduate business program at a 4-year school and the 38% gain for students completing an ACBSP-accredited undergraduate business program.
