SCHOOL OF HUMANITIES & SOCIAL SCIENCES

CONCORDIA UNIVERSITY TEXAS

Concordia University Texas is dedicated to the mission of developing Christian leaders. Founded in 1926, Concordia is proud to be Austin's leading Christian university, where Christ is honored and students of all backgrounds are welcomed. We are guided by our vision to be the premier university where the adventure of faith, learning and life-changing experiences leads to meaningful work.

CTX is a regionally accredited institution of higher education, offering undergraduate and graduate degrees through a variety of delivery methods. We offer over 50 majors and concentrations.

Concordia's campus, unique in its natural setting on a preserve, is conveniently located minutes from both downtown Austin and the Texas Hill Country. Our location provides students with resources and opportunities to learn, explore and thrive in the best of both worlds — a small school and a big city.

ABOUT THE PROGRAM

Majoring in history opens students up to a world of possibilities. This degree encourages flexibility by requiring a broad range of liberal arts and social sciences courses. By the time students complete their undergraduate studies, they are thoroughly prepared for various careers in academic, professional and business fields.

History students strengthen their information-gathering skills and develop organizational and analytical research and writing skills as they acquire a strong background in US, Mexican and European history. Students are well-prepared for graduate studies in liberal arts, social science, library studies, law and ministry.

COURSE HIGHLIGHTS

Traditions and Values of Classical Civilizations

This course teaches a thematic approach to the contributions of the classical Greek and Roman worlds to Western Civilization.

International Relations Since 1919

In this course, students will analyze world events since 1919 that have affected relationships between nations. Such issues include wars, peace negotiations, economics and social crises.

Race and Ethnic Relations

This course focuses on race and ethnic relations as a national concern.

HANDS-ON EXPERIENCE

History students have had successful internships at various organizations/agencies in Austin, including:

- ▶ The Dolph Briscoe Center for American History, working with the photograph collection and preparing an exhibition.
- ▶ The Austin History Center, organizing materials for researchers.
- ▶ The Texas Historical Commission working on historical markers.

History students can take a semester-long internship for variable credit hours, depending on work hours available. About 50 percent of History majors go on to some graduate school in areas such as history programs, education programs, English programs, seminary or law school.
