The Big Three

These are the three online services you’ll use the most at CTX. They each do something different, so be sure you know what each one does and when to use it!

Password & Account Information

Many of your online services with CTX will use the same account information. This is your Concordia network account. Be sure to check which account information you should use for each service!

Webmail

Concordia’s official mode of communication. The university will not send official information to other email accounts.
